GROUP STUDENT PILOT LOSS OF TRAINING FEES APPLICATION FORM

Important Advice

1. Failure to disclose all material information that is likely to influence the acceptance of the risk or the terms applied could invalidate the insurance. If you are in any doubt as to whether any information is material, it should be disclosed.
2. Where the space provided is insufficient for your replies, please provide these separately and attach to this Application Form.
3. The term company, whenever used in this application form shall mean the insured listed and all subsidiary companies of the insured for which coverage is proposed under this application.
4. A copy of this Application Form should be saved and retained for your records.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to insurers every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. The same duty arises on renewal, extension, reinstatement or variation of a contract of General Insurance.

The disclosure required is especially important in matters relating to the physical risk, past claims, cancellation of insurance covers, the imposition of increased premiums, insolvency or criminal convictions. Disclosure is not limited to specific questions in a application form or matters applying to the Insured named in the Policy, but includes other relevant matters including past business or businesses or private insurances. If you breach the duty, even innocently, the insurer may be able to reduce its liability in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the Policy from inception.

WHAT YOU MUST TELL INSURERS

When answering our questions, you must be honest and you have a duty under law to tell an insurer anything known to you, and which a reasonable person in the circumstances, would include in answer to the question. An insurer will use the answers to decide whether to insure you and on what terms.

It is important that you understand you are answering questions in this way for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the insurance.

IF YOU DO NOT TELL INSURERS

If you do not answer questions in this way, insurers may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel your insurance.

If you answer the questions fraudulently, insurers may refuse to pay a claim and treat your insurance as if it never existed.
